

No Milk Today

Herman's Hermits (Theres A Kind Of Hush... - 1967)

Graham Gouldman

dm F A dm A dm

No milk today, my love has gone a - way The bot-tle stands for-lorn, as sym-bol of the down
No milk today, it seems a com-mon sigh But peop-le pas-sing by don't know the reasing why

D C G G A D

How could they know just what this mes-sage means The end of my hopes, the end of all my dreams

D C G G A D

How could they know a palace there had been Be-hind the door where my love reigned as queen

dm F A dm A dm

No milk today it wasn't always so The compa-ny was gay, we turned night in - to day

D A em A D A G

But all that's left is a place dark and lone-ly A terraced house in a main street back of town

D A em A G A

Be-comes a shine when I think of you on ly Just two up two down

dm F A dm A dm

No milk to - day, it was-n't al ways so The com-pa-ny was gay, we turned night in-to day
As mu - sic played the fas-er we did dance We felt it both at once the satrt of out romance