

Rambler Gambler

US trad.

I'm a ramb - ler, I'm a gamb - ler, I'm a long way from home, and if peo - ple don't like me, they can leave me a - lone.

I'm a rambler, I'm a gambler,
I'm a long way from home,
and if people don't like me,
they can leave me alone.

2. It's a dark night and it's lonesome, the moon gives no light, my pony won't travel this dark road tonight.

3. Well, I had me a little sweetheart, her age was nineteen,
she was the flower of Belton, the rose of Saleen.

4. But her parents didn't like me, now she is the same,
if I'm writ in your books, love, you just blot out my name.

5. I'm a rambler, I'm a gambler,
I'm a long way from home,
and if people don't like me,
they can leave me alone.
